- 1. The defendant is prohibited from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.
- 2. The defendant shall not have any contact, direct or indirect, with J.C., H.S., or A.G.
- 3. The defendant is not to consume any alcoholic beverages.
- 4. The defendant is to participate in a program for substance abuse counseling as directed by the Probation Office, which program may include testing, not to exceed 50 drug tests per year to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of alcohol or drugs. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
- 5. The defendant is to participate in a mental health evaluation to determine if there is a need for anger management treatment or a batterer's intervention program. If the defendant is directed to participate in such treatment, he shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
- 6. The defendant shall use his true name and is prohibited from the use of any false identifying information which includes, but is not limited to, any aliases, false dates of birth, false social security numbers, and incorrect places of birth.

Continuation of Conditions of Supervised Release Probation

- 7. The defendant is to pay any fine or restitution imposed according to a court-ordered repayment schedule.
- 8. The defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the Probation Office while any financial obligations remain outstanding.
- 9. The defendant is to provide the Probation Office access to any requested financial information, which may be shared with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, internet-capable device, or similar electronic device or have access to any online service without the prior approval of the Probation Office.

10. If the Defendant is required under state or federal law to register as a sex offender, he shall register pursuant to the Adam Walsh Act not later than 3 business days (from release or sentencing, if granted probation). The defendant will keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed or is a student. The defendant shall, not later than 3 business days after each change in name, residence, employment, or student status, appear in person in at least one jurisdiction in which the defendant is registered and inform that jurisdiction of all changes in the information. Failure to do so may not only be a violation of this condition but also a new federal offense punishable by up to 10 years imprisonment. In addition, the defendant must read and sign the Offender Notice and Acknowledgment of Duty to Register as a Sex Offender per the Adam Walsh Child Protection And Safety Act of 2006 form.

ADDITIONAL ✓ SUPERVISED RELEASE ☐ PROBATION TERMS

11. The defendant shall participate in a sexual specific evaluation or sex offender specific treatment, conducted by a sex offender treatment provider, as directed and approved by the Probation Office. The treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual specific evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing which may include polygraph, ABLE screening, and other types of testing, as approved by the Probation Office. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the Probation Office. When submitting to a polygraph exam, the defendant does not waive his or her Fifth Amendment rights, and the defendant's exercise of such rights will not give rise to a violation proceeding. The results of the polygraph examinations may not be used as evidence in Court to prove that a violation of community supervision has occurred, but may be considered in a hearing to modify release conditions and/or could initiate a separate investigation.

12. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer, internet-capable device, or similar electronic device or have access to any online service without the prior approval of the Probation Office.

Continuation of Conditions of Supervised Release Probation

- 13. The defendant shall allow the installation of a computer and internet monitoring program and/or identify computer systems, internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access (except a computer owned by his employer and not located in his residence). The program(s) used will be designed to identify, for the probation office, the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or otherwise using any images or content of a sexual or otherwise inappropriate nature. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such monitoring services, based on the defendant's ability to pay, as deemed appropriate by the Probation Office. The defendant shall not attempt to remove or otherwise defeat such systems, and shall allow the Probation Office to examine such computer and receive data from it at any reasonable time.
- 14. The defendant shall advise anyone in his/her household that any computer in the household may be subject to computer monitoring.
- 15. The defendant is not to possess or use a computer, internet-capable device, or similar electronic device without the prior permission of the Probation Office. Any device previously mentioned should not be used to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. The defendant is prohibited from entering chat rooms, to send or receive "instant messages," or to send or receive email with attached electronic files through any electronic medium unless previously approved by the Probation Office. The defendant shall not utilize any sex-related telephone services, websites, or electronic bulletin boards.
